DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH OUTREACH PROGRAMME-2021-22 AIDS RALLY

The Department of English conducted an outreach programme called “Aidis Rally” on 01/12/2021 in collaboration with local organizations and Department of Zoology, Govt. Degree College, Yellandu. The programme aimed to provide aid and support to underprivileged communities in the area, specifically in the form of educational resources and mentorship.

Objective:

The primary objective of the Aidis Rally was to provide assistance and support to those who need it the most in the community, especially in the field of education. The programme sought to bridge the gap between educational opportunities and underprivileged communities, providing resources and mentorship to help them achieve their academic goals.

Activities:

The Aidis Rally comprised a series of activities designed to promote education and provide support to the community. The programme started with a series of speeches by the organizers, highlighting the importance of education and its impact on the community’s overall development.

Following the speeches, the attendees were divided into small groups .The volunteers provided mentorship and guidance to help the attendees understand how to use the resources effectively.

Outcome:

The Aidis Rally was a huge success, with over 50 attendees from various parts of the community and students of this college. The programme received positive feedback from both the attendees and the volunteers who helped organize it.

The distribution of educational resources and mentorship proved to be highly beneficial to the attendees, who expressed their gratitude for the support they received. The quiz competition was also highly engaging and helped to promote learning in a fun and interactive way.

Conclusion:

The Aidis Rally conducted by the Department of English was a successful outreach programme that aimed to provide aid and support to underprivileged communities in the area. Through the distribution of educational resources and mentorship, the programme helped bridge the gap between educational opportunities and underprivileged communities.

The programme's success can be attributed to the efforts of the organizers and volunteers who dedicated their time and resources to make it a success. The Aidis Rally is an excellent example of how outreach programmes can have a significant impact on the community and promote overall development.
