Section 1: The Role of the Teacher

Teachers are the backbone of the education system. They are responsible for creating a safe and supportive learning environment for their students. They also play a key role in assessing student progress and providing feedback to help them improve.

Section 2: The Role of the Student

Students are the central focus of the education system. They are responsible for attending school, participating in class, and completing assignments. They also play a key role in their own learning by taking ownership of their education and seeking out opportunities for growth.

Section 3: The Role of the Parent

Parents are the first and most important teachers in a child's life. They are responsible for providing a stable and supportive home environment for their children. They also play a key role in their child's education by staying involved in school activities and supporting their child's learning at home.

Section 4: The Role of the Society

Society plays a key role in the education system by providing the resources and support needed for schools to operate. This includes funding for schools, providing teachers with the training and support they need, and creating a culture that values education and learning.
