

The Department of English conducts extension lectures for all the students by inviting the resource persons from various Degree colleges. To update the knowledge of the students and access the employable opportunities in the job market, these lectures will enhance their linguistic competence and perform in the global market. Students get benefited by all these lectures and seminars in shaping their career in the right direction.

