

HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

Department of Political Science celebrated Human Rights Day on 9th December itself as 10th December is Second Saturday. Ramadevi of Economics department of our college was invited as keynote speaker. S Kamalakar, incharge, dept.of Political Science presided over the meeting. In his presidential remarks, he stressed the fact that there existed different forms of violations of human rights in today's crisis ridden world.

Keynote speaker Ramadevi spoke on the importance of Human Rights and hailed the efforts of the department of Political Science in creating awareness about them among the students.

Associate Professor Sridevi stressed the importance of looking at the issue of human rights from feminist perspective instead of just hither to general perspective of human rights violations.

K. Madhavi enlightened the students on the basic meaning of human rights and their violations

Dr. A Madhu Sudhan Reddy spoke on violations of human rights and how human beings are losing the chances of leading dignified and secured life due to War, Disease and Economic crises that are afflicting humanity world-over at present.

