

GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

KARIMNAGAR

Subject: ENGLISH

COURSE OUTCOMES

UG English enables the students learn language skills, soft skills, technical skills and the topics in grammar and composition in a graded manner. It enables them to go through some selected literary works and find glimpses of life and the world from various perspectives.

B.A/B.Com/B.SC PROGRAMME

FIRST YEAR

SEMESTER-I

Title & paper : English for communication 1

Course code : 101

Credits: 4

Total Hours : 60

CO1: Learn the basics of English language like spelling rules, framing sentences and tense forms.

CO2: Learn the fundamentals of grammar such as regular and irregular verb forms, finite and infinite verbs, auxiliary verbs, tenses, four types of sentences and spellings of various content words & structure words.

CO3: Improve communication skills through a number of conversation practices, pronunciation drills and language games such as tongue twisters, euphemisms and Indianisms.

CO4: Develop employability skills in English at the career entry level with help of soft skills such as team work, decision making and effective communication.

GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

KARIMNAGAR

Subject: ENGLISH

COURSE OUTCOMES

SEMESTER-II

Title & paper : English for communication 1

Course code : 201

Credits: 4

Total Hours : 60

CO1: Able to use sentences in active and passive voice, in direct and indirect speech, in positive, comparative and superlative degrees and in simple, complex and compound sentences and their transformation that are helpful in competitive exams.

CO2: Learn concord, articles, prepositions, and various conditional sentences such as probable, impossible and improbable.

CO3: competent to correct the use of English in conversations, connectors, collocations and common errors.

CO3: Learn vocabulary such as conjunctions, collocations and idioms and phrases and improve their vocabulary through various language games such as hangman, spider web (word families) and word jumble.

CO4: Improve speaking skills with the help of word stress, sentence stress, rhythm, intonation and the pronunciation differences of American and British English.

CO5: Enhance employability skills through conversation practices, soft skills such as creativity (thinking out of the box), work ethics and interpersonal skills.

SECOND YEAR

SEMESTER-III

Title & paper : English for communication 2

Course code : 301

Credits:3

Total Hours : 45

CO1: Enhance job skills through Soft skills like multi tasking, critical thinking, stress management and communication skills like listening, speaking and oral presentations.

CO2: Improve study skills like note making, note taking, summarizing diary writing, notice writing and precis writing.

CO3: Develop reading skills through reading comprehension passages like Dasarathi Krishnamacharya, Bathukamma festival, Dr. Nalimela Bhaskar – A man of many languages

CO4: Learn vocabulary with the help of synonyms, suffixes, words and phrases of diary writing.

SEMESTER-IV

Title & paper : English for communication 2

Course code : 401

Credits: 3

Total Hours : 45

CO1: Improve communication skills through conversation practices like describing places, describing feelings and activities like JAM.

CO2: Learn vocabulary items like antonyms, prefixes, one word substitutes, idioms and minimal pairs.

CO3: Develop writing skills such as composition writing, paragraph writing and travelogue.

CO4: Enhance soft skills like interpersonal skills, motivational skills and time management.

CO5: Develop their insights into forms and functions of the English language

THIRD YEAR

SEMESTER V

Title & paper : English for communication 3

Course code : 501

Credits: 3

Total Hours : 45

CO1: Enhances communication skills through language activities like role play, telephone conversation, picture description, debate and interview.

CO2: Learn the pragmatic skills such as resume writing, letter writing and creating statement of purpose and information transfer.

CO3: develop religious harmony, national integrity, human values and gender equity with the help of the lessons such as “Swami Vivekananda’s speech”, “My vision for India” and “The first Woman Teacher of India: Savitribai Phule”.

CO4: Cultivate reading habit through reading comprehension on Vivekananda Rock Memorial, reading for prediction and reading for inference.

SEMESTER VI

Title & paper : English for communication 3

Course code : 601

Credits: 3

Total Hours : 45

CO1: Acquire official communication competencies like presentation using slides, group discussion techniques, Interview techniques, seeking and giving information, debate on current topics, official letters, report writing, minutes writing and inviting guests.

CO2: Get motivated by the contemporary biographies and inspirational success stories included in the text.

CO3: Learn the useful language skills both for academic as well as professional life with the authentic and meaningful activities through Listening for facts, opinion and theme, Reading for prediction, evaluation and personal response.

CO4: Enhances life skills along with linguistic skills that are applicable immediately in their lives through constructive tasks.

CO5: Learn the language of Information technology and its application in real life.