

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Department of Political Science is one of the specialized branches of Social Sciences of Government Degree College for Women, Karimnagar, was established in 1973 with a motto “Empowering Women through Education”. Since its inception the Department of Political Science has been catering to the needs of the students from the urban and rural areas of Karimnagar who opt for social sciences as their optional. Keeping the motto “Virtue is Knowledge” on high pedestal, the department endeavors to inculcate among the students the ethical norms, besides equipping them with the expertise in subject. As Aristotle stated “Good citizens make good state” the department’s avowed objective is to provide the society the well-equipped, knowledgeable and responsible citizens. The primary aim of the department is to guide the students into greener pastures of opportunities after their graduation. Holistic development of the students by imbibing the qualities of leadership, team work, communication skills, event management etc. underlies the vision of the department.

Vision:

The vision of the department is to shape the students by inculcating in them the virtues of social living as envisaged and envisioned by political thinkers and philosophers. To enrich them with universal outlook and nuances of Indian Polity, thereby mold the students as valuable citizens of the global village is the cherished objective of the department. We are committed to advance education and academic activity that fosters possibilities of intellectual and social transformation of our students and prepare them to become citizens committed to values of social & gender justice and public service.

Mission:

Our department is well equipped and geared up to walk hand in hand with students to help them acquire the knowledge and also to prepare them for life by orienting the co-curricular and extra-curricular initiatives. Student-centric teaching, systematic evaluation, inculcation of employable abilities forms the core of the mission of our department.
