VISION & MISSION OF THE DEPARTMENT

VISION: -

Literature is a connection between ages. It has approved through ages that literature is a true friend of mankind. Its always a kind hand to put on ignorant minds and has a glittering hope for wounded humanity. A keen study of history tells us that after acquiring knowledge, man has transformed knowledge into destructive weapon. As for as literature is concerned it teaches us brotherhood, equality, justice, unity, democracy, liberty, love and sincerely among human beings. It also teaches us to give respect to human being without any classification of wealth religion, language colour and other differences.

To train the students to meet the Challenges of Contemporary Competition in Every field employment, self-employment, Higher Studies’.

Today’s globalization was also a dram of writers but it was more beautiful than the one we are proceeding these days because the writer’s global village was conceptualized with the great moral values that human ever made for the betterment of mankind.

Literatures always condemn the ideas and activities that stop the Progress of Humanity and revolution in mind

All the Progress of mankind is a result of literary vision. No discipline of life can play constructive role of literary vision as third eye. By keen study of history and society we can easily know that the nations made distance with literature become spiritually unproductive uncreative, dispersed and waste lands literature make human beings more rational and sensible.

Mission: -

The department of Urdu literature has a mission to make the youth rational and sensible with above mentioned literary values. The producers of literature have always dream to make this world a mini paradise with all beauties, love and peace.
