

Vermicompost Unit:

The department established the Vermicompost unit to impart free training to the students every year. The resultant compost is being used in our College Garden

